

O

American English Institute

Cheryl Ernst, Executive Director
cheryle@uoregon.edu

UNIVERSITY OF
OREGON

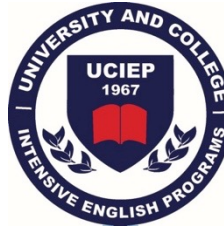

AEI – An Overview

Intensive English Program (IEP)

Non-Credit & Pre-Academic,
Conditional Admission,
Personal Growth,
Study Abroad

Academic English for International Students (AEIS)

Credit bearing classes
for UO undergrad students
Global Bridge with Global Affairs and
First Year Programs

Academic English for International Graduate Students (GRST)

Credit bearing classes
for UO graduate students
TOEFL waivers, required for some,
optional for others

Innovative Programming (formerly e-Learning)

Professional Services,
Hybrid/Online, Teacher Training,
Curriculum Design
Custom Programs

An inclusive hub of diversity

- National Diversity
- Linguistic Diversity
- Cultural Diversity
- Economic Diversity
- Varying Abilities
- Various modes of program delivery

Intensive English Program Overview

- Full-term program: 10 weeks
 - Fall, winter, spring, summer
- Short-term program: 4 weeks
 - First four weeks of a term or last four weeks of a term.
- Curriculum:
 - 6 hours Reading/Writing
 - 6 hours Speaking/Listening
 - 6 hours Grammar
 - 2+ hours electives

Academic English

- Each course is 10 weeks and 4-credits
- UO tuition and fees
- AEIS counts as elective credit towards a bachelor's degree.

Undergraduate AEIS

- UO admitted students with TOEFL* scores of 61-87 take the Accuplacer test, aka “AEIS test” for placement.
- Students testing in the lowest classes take International First-Year Interest Group (iFIG)
 - iFIG is a 1-year cohort program combining academics and language support.

Note: Anyone with an 88+ TOEFL is exempt.

*TOEFL or equivalent score on a proficiency test accepted by UO.

AEIS

- Sequence of UG courses –
 - iFIGs – series of 6 courses, connected by a content course and campus connections
 - 101, 102 – Oral Communication
 - 107 – Academic Reading
 - 110, 111, 112 – Academic Writing
- Pre-req for composition classes and business majors

Graduate AEIS

- Graduate students on a TOEFL* waiver
- Anyone required to by their department
- Graduate students with an interest
- Graduate students referred by their departments

*TOEFL or equivalent score on a proficiency test accepted by UO.

GRST Courses Available

- GRST 621 – Academic Discourse
- GRST 624 – Teaching in US Univ Settings
 - May be required prior to teaching
- GRST 626 – Professional Presentations
- GRST 631 - Graduate & Scholarly Writing I
- GRST 632 - Graduate & Scholarly Writing II
- GRST 610 – Professional and Scholarly Texts
- GRST 610 – US Teaching Culture & Communication
- GRST 610 – Reading for Legal Studies
- GRST 610 – Writing for Legal Studies

Innovative Programming Collaborations

- Khbrat – Saudi educator's program (2019-2020)
 - AEI: English, English teacher training, cultural adaptation
 - COE: Content courses, internships at local schools
- Short-term programs
- Teacher training
- Writing grants for foreign nationals?
 - Targeted English language support
 - Culture adaptation workshops
 - Logistics support

