

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

DEPARTMENT OF PSYCHOLOGY AND
COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

Present

PIONEERING HUMAN DIFFERENCES AND INDIVIDUAL LIVES
Twenty First Annual Leona E. Tyler Lecture

Hirokazu Yoshikawa, PhD

Courtney Sale Ross Professor of Globalization and Education and University Professor,
New York University Steinhardt

Improving the Quality of Early Childhood Education in the Context of the UN Sustainable Development Goals

This presentation will describe recent developments and data concerning quality in Early Childhood Education and its improvement in the United States and internationally, with a focus on the global policy context, quality improvement in studies from Boston and Santiago de Chile, and a new global initiative to assess learning and quality in low- and middle-income countries.

Friday October 14, 2016 • 2:30 – 4:00 P.M.

Ford Lecture Hall, Jordan Schnitzer Museum of Art

Reception to Follow