

Generation PMTO

Steps to successful parenting

COMMUNITY TRAINING OCTOBER 2018-2019

Family Therapists, Practitioners, and Social Workers!

Are you ready to learn real life skills and strategies that teach parents how to regulate emotions, encourage new behaviors, set boundaries, and build confidence?

Join our year-long Community Training program to learn evidence-based skills that have strengthened thousands of families globally. GenerationPMTO therapists give parents hope to become the change agents in their families and for generations to come.

Take your practice to another level, see quick results, and create the change you want to see in the world, one family at a time.
