

UO Women in Graduate Science :
Communication workshop with Mark Blaine

Thursday March 14th, 5 – 7 pm
Lease Crutcher Lewis Room (EMU 236)

Mark Blaine is an award-winning writer, investigative reporter, and editor. His workshop will help graduate students effectively communicate their science to a wide range of audiences. This workshop will prepare attendees for the following networking workshop event. Dinner will be provided!

