

A JOB OPPORTUNITY FOR YOU? (or someone you know?)

The Research in Early Autism Detection & Intervention Lab (READi Lab) at the University of Washington would like to hire an individual from the Eugene area to assist with carrying out tasks associated with an ongoing research study.

Work from home!

Primary responsibilities for this position include:

- ✓ Drop off/pick up toys and video equipment at study participants' home
- ✓ Maintain equipment (e.g. sanitize & charge equipment)
- ✓ Communicate regularly with UW supervisor (zoom, email)
- ✓ Follow study policies and maintain accurate records

Travel in and around Eugene. Fluctuating weekly hours according to study need.
Hourly pay plus mileage reimbursement.

❖ Dependability, professionalism and flexibility are essential!

❖ Must have access to a car and a current, valid driver's license.

Gain valuable experience!

For more information, email Carol at schubca@uw.edu