

WGS, CMiS, and GiIN present a seminar with...

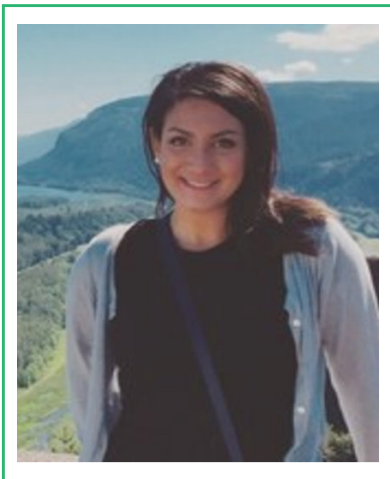

Dr. Angie Michael

Friday, November 4th from 12-1 pm

Location: Knight Campus Beetham Family Seminar Room

Pizza will be provided after the seminar on the Knight Campus Terrace

Scan here for
RSVP form

Dr. Angie Michael is a science program fellow at The Kavli foundation, supporting the International Brain Initiative. This initiative advances neuroscience research through international collaboration. Prior to joining the Kavli Foundation, Angie obtained her Ph.D. in neuroscience from UO. Her doctoral work investigated how the visual system dynamically processes sensory information and her postdoctoral work at Harvard Medical School where she studied how the brain uses multiple sensory modalities to create coherent experiences of the world.