

GUIDED ARTWALK STOPS

Follow along the guided tour to hear from featured artists.

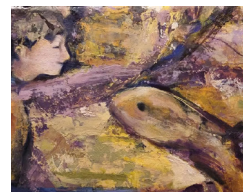

- 1 5:30 PM | Kesey Square (Broadway and Willamette)
The ArtWalk begins with dance performances by Jose and Michelle Cruz from Salseros Dance Company, a Fandango (jam session) preview, and Cuban salsa by Azúcar.

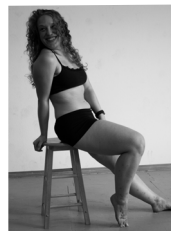

- 2 6 PM | Park Street Blocks (8th and Oak)
The Fandango celebration begins! Enjoy the music, dance, and culture of Veracruz, Mexico with guest artist Omar Rojas and the Jaraneros musicians from the Northwest. People of all ages gather together with jaranas (a guitar-like string instrument from Mexico) around the main dancing platform to play jaranas, sing, and dance! Bring your own instruments, or borrow one.

- 3 6:30 PM | Broadway Commerce Center (44 W Broadway)

- 4 7 PM | gilt+gossamer (873 Willamette St)
gilt+gossamer presents "Love and Affinity," semi-abstract work by Christian Ives. Inspired by the moments in life that are worth remembering, Christian's paintings transcend reality in a flurry of vibrant colors and textures.

- 5 7:30 PM | Maven Art Boutique (271 W 8th Ave)
Jozie Donaghey, a Girl Scout earning her Gold Award, focused her final project on body confidence in women. She states, "Every day the media that surrounds us shows us how we are supposed to look, dress, and act via TV, magazines, and advertisements. The truth is, no one's photoshopped in real life. I challenge everyone in our community to come to this exhibit, look in the mirror, and love themselves for the raw natural human beauty we all share."

GALLERIES & STUDIOS

6 Framin' ArtWorks
(505 High St)

Rachel McLain's photography explores transformations. By bringing attention to the beauty that remains in a tiny leaf or flower that has wilted and dried, this series embodies hope and resilience while highlighting the worth that we all retain as we age. Rachel works almost exclusively in natural light and uses minimal post-processing in order to maintain her connection with nature.

7 Goldworks Jewelry Art Studio
(169 E Broadway)
Original jewelry by Goldworks staff.

8 Karin Clarke Gallery
(760 Willamette St)
"Rick Bartow (1946 - 2016): Selected Monoprints," featuring 10 large, colorful monoprints he created during residencies at the Crow's Shadow Institute of the Arts. Through September 30th.

9 The Lincoln Gallery
(309 W 4th Ave)
"OSLP Arts & Culture Program Showcase Exhibition," featuring a colorful display of paintings, mosaics, comics, and jewelry. Also view work completed during two mentorships and digital art by Marcos Rockwell in the Community Room Gallery.

10  The New Zone Gallery
(220 W 8th Ave)
