

Theater for Empathy and Understanding in the Israel-Palestine Conflict

Scenes from Israeli, Palestinian and other Middle Eastern American Playwrights

An event for the UO community directed by Professor Malek Najjar, with commentary from UO faculty and written questions from students

Monday, Nov. 27 | EMU Redwood Room | 6:30 p.m.

A space for listening and empathy. Theater event will include UO students performing scenes by both Israeli and Palestinian playwrights, with faculty brief commentary and written, curated questions from audience.

For a complete list of campus co-sponsors and further information:

bit.ly/uo-theater-for-empathy

541-346-3206
intl@uoregon.edu

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

Division of Global Engagement

An equal-opportunity, affirmative-action institution committed to cultural diversity and compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act.